Did you hear?

- ✓ Wisdom is the means to a wonderful eternity, to peace, to the prosperity which gold cannot provide.
- ✓ The “culture” in which we are growing is fermented with foolishness.
- ✓ We will never deserve the title “wise” until we are so full of the Word of God that it pours out our pores.
- ✓ Self-diagnosis is usually the wrong diagnosis.
- ✓ The Lord is no Indian giver, aboriginal giver, native American giver, or thief.
- ✓ The responsibility for lost joy lays on the shoulder of the Christian. When he walks into the shade of the Tower of Babel, he must expect to lose the warmth of Jehovah.

William Penn ...

was the founder of Pennsylvania. Now a city council has removed a bench that quotes Penn because it talks about God.

Garydemar.com reports "a city council in Pennsylvania has unanimously voted to remove a park bench that was meant to honor veterans due to objection from an atheist group regarding a God-centered inscription on the display that is attributed to the state's founder. "While there is no constitutional prohibition, either at the federal or state level, to remove religious statements from government buildings, atheists continue to press the claim of a fictional prohibition through expensive court costs. In this case, it's a bench that reads, 'Men who aren't governed by God, will be governed by tyrants.' The inscription on the bench is attributed to William Penn, the founder of Pennsylvania. The atheists are proving the truth of Penn's claim and denying the founding principles of the state of Pennsylvania." Atheists are attacking America at the root. They are not just trimming the tree; they are trying to uproot it. William Penn would be shocked, and we should be too!

Money will buy a bed ...

but not sleep, books but not brains, food but not appetite, finery but not beauty, medicine but not health, luxury but not culture, amusement but not happiness, a crucifix but not a Saviour, a religious temple but not Heaven.

“The Church, therefore urges...

her sons to enter with prudence and charity into discussion and collaboration with members of other religions. Let Christians, while witnessing to their own faith and way of life, acknowledge, preserve and encourage the spiritual and moral truths found among non-Christians, also their social life and culture.

"The Church has also a high regard for the Muslims. They worship God, who is one, living and subsistent, merciful and almighty, the Creator of heaven and earth, who has also spoken to men. They strive to submit themselves without reserve to the hidden decrees of God, just as Abraham submitted himself to God's plan, to whose faith Muslims eagerly link their own. Although not acknowledging him as god, they venerate Jesus as a prophet, his virgin Mother they also honor, and even at times devoutly invoke. Further, they await the day of judgment and the reward of God following the resurrection of the dead. For this reason they highly esteem an upright life and worship God, especially by way of prayer, alms deeds and fasting.

"Over the centuries many quarrels and dissensions have arisen between Christians and Muslims. The sacred Council now pleads with all to forget the past, and urges that a sincere effort be made to achieve mutual understanding; for the benefit of all men, let them together preserve and promote peace, liberty, social justice and moral values."
– Vatican II (Roman Catholicism)

Emily Rose Hollins ...

arrived home from the hospital on July 14 for the first time since her premature birth five months ago. Emily is one of the smallest babies to survive outside the womb. She was born four months prematurely, weighing just 12 ounces.

LifeNews has documented quite a few cases of babies surviving after being born weighing less than one pound. Last fall, a Chicago hospital saved a very premature infant who was born weighing 13 ounces. Eirianna spent four months at Mount Sinai Hospital in Chicago before growing well enough to go home in February of this year. More micro preemies like Eirianna and Emily are surviving outside the womb thanks to modern medical technology.

Duke University study published in January found babies born at just .23 weeks' gestation are surviving outside the womb at a greater rate than ever before.

Let's Sing the Unsung ...

Alas! And did my Savior bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would He devote that sacred head
For sinners such as I?

Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While His dear cross appears;

Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt my eyes to tears.

– I Watts

We accept the observation ...

that (our) nation is becoming increasingly morally bankrupt. We accept the fact that we are in troubled times. But the remedy is not to redefine the gospel in hopes of gathering massive numbers to speak out politically against unrighteousness. The remedy is rather to reaffirm the gospel and take it in to the (people of) all religions (and those of no organized religion). The remedy is to encourage Christians to take their stand in a non-Christian pluralistic society and grapple for a share of voice in the market place – (a Biblically evangelical voice).

– R. M. Zins

No man ever sank under ...

the burden of the day. It is when tomorrow's burden is added to the burden of today that the weight is more than a man can bear. Never load yourself so. If you find yourself so loaded, at least remember this: it is your own doing, not God's. He tells you to leave the future to Him and mind the present.

– G. McDonald

“So I said to her, ‘Just because no one likes you doesn't mean you are holy.’”
