Welcome:

The membership of Calvary Baptist Church would like to thank you for visiting with us today. We hope that the music and message will be a blessing to you.

There are several ways to learn more about us. Visit our web-site: http://idahobaptist.com. You can also hear our services by going to our Facebook page on your computer or smart phone at “Calvary Independent Baptist Church of Post Falls.” Also, many of our messages can be heard on “sermonaudio.com/idahobaptist”.

Schedule:

Men’s Prayer Meeting – September 19, 6:30 a.m.
Fellowship Sunday – September 20.

Brother Daniel Pearson ...

and his family are with us today. Bro. Pearson is beginning a missionary work in the inner city area of Kennedy Heights in Cincinnati, Ohio. He will be describing his work this morning at 10:00 and preaching for us at 11:00 and again at 6:00.

Most folks in the West ...

do not appreciate simply being given the exact words of truth and authority to live by, so they treasure their own opinions and tolerance as scripture. Perhaps one good thing the Lord brings forth under Communist rule is the submission to truth when it’s heard without reservation. This may be why without fellowship, radio programs, Bible schools, etc. the persecuted churches come before the Lord God in full faith that He is the only hope and provider of all things now and in eternity. This makes them seek knowledge of Him and His word everyday and then simply practice it in their lives whatever the cost.

– Dan Freeman Baptist Missionary to China

Services:

Sunday School – 10:00 a.m.
Morning Service – 11:00 a.m.

Brother Daniel Pearson

Evening Service – 6:00 p.m.

Brother Daniel Pearson

Wednesday Bible Study – 7:00 p.m

When Jesus drank the cup ...

do not appreciate simply being given the exact words of truth and authority to live by, so they treasure their own opinions and tolerance as scripture. Perhaps one good thing the Lord brings forth under Communist rule is the submission to truth when it’s heard without reservation. This may be why without fellowship, radio programs, Bible schools, etc. the persecuted churches come before the Lord God in full faith that He is the only hope and provider of all things now and in eternity. This makes them seek knowledge of Him and His word everyday and then simply practice it in their lives whatever the cost.

– Dan Freeman Baptist Missionary to China

Our Lord does not promise ...

to change life for us; He does not promise to remove difficulties and trials and problems and tribulations; He does not say that He is going to cut out all the thorns and leave the roses with their wonderful perfume. No; He faces life realistically, and tells us that these are things to which the flesh is heir, and which are bound to come. But He assures us that we can so know Him that, whatever happens, we need never be frightened, we need never be alarmed.

– M. Lloyd-Jones

In the day of primitive ...

Christianity, it would have been deemed a kind of apostasy not to sigh for the return of the Lord.

– Author unknown
The June issue of “Cell” ...

describes a seven-year project to use DNA testing to trace the divergent sheep that were used to make the Dead Sea Scrolls. The research was done by a team from Tel Aviv university, joined by other scientists. The DNA testing is being used to piece together fragments, among other things. A report says, “The findings support the notion that for contemporaries, the most important aspects of the scriptural text were its content and meaning, not its precise wording and orthography (the conventional spelling system of a language)” (“DNA Extracted from Animal Skins,” Breaking Israel News, June 2, 2020).

The Dead Sea Scrolls offer a very tiny, but fascinating window into the history of the Old Testament Scripture. But it is a wonderful thing that we aren’t dependent on 25,000 fragments to piece together the Word of God. The God who gave the Scripture has kept it – He has preserved it for us. “For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth forever.” – Wayoflife.com that has muscle like tissue illustrates that there are no simple life forms. Protein muscle fibers, say evolutionists, are a later and more advanced development in living things. Yet these scientists also claim that algae are among the first of the living things to have evolved.

A strange alga ...

The Mougeotia alga contains a structure that performs photosynthesis. This structure is shaped like a fat disc. Researchers found that, depending on the brightness and direction of the light, this structure is turned to control the rate at which photosynthesis takes place. Further study indicates that the structure is actually turned by protein fibers that expand and contract just like our muscles to keep everything under control! Here we have two very different structures working together. The disc-like structure that carries out photosynthesis could not function very well at all without the ‘muscle’ fiber. If the muscle fiber were to evolve without the disc like structure to control, the fiber would be useless.

The individual parts of all living things work together like the individual instruments in an orchestra. They’re useless without each other. This example shows that individual structures in living things could not have evolved gradually and individually, over long periods of time. They were created to work together in close harmony!

– creationmoments.com

A typical Lord’s Day in the ...

life of John Standford: “Morning, at half past eight, preached in the City-Hospital, and afterwards prayed with a sick patient. Preached in the State-Prison chapel at Military Hospital ten o’clock, and visited the sick in the prison hospital at noon. Preached again to the prisoners in the afternoon, and immediately walked to the Magdalene House, and preached another sermon, and in the evening preached in the Alms-House. The Lord graciously assisted me this day in these five sermons, and other duties.”

– J. Stanford (1754-1834)

Love without truth ...

is sentimentality; it supports and affirms us but keeps us in denial about our flaws. Truth without love is harshness; it gives us information but in such a way that we cannot really hear it. God’s saving love in Christ, however, is marked by both radical truthfulness about who we are and yet also radical, unconditional commitment to us. The merciful commitment strengthens us to see the truth about ourselves and repent. The conviction and repentance moves us to cling to and rest in God’s mercy and grace…. ” – Anon.

Human beings by their ...

very nature are worshipers. Worship is not something we do; it defines who we are. You cannot divide human beings into those who worship and those who don’t. Everybody worships; it’s just a matter of what, or whom, we serve.

– P. Tripp

“Rover can’t sleep, so I gave him a CD of last Sunday’s morning message.”