Welcome:
The membership of Calvary Baptist Church would like to thank you for visiting with us today.

We are a church that is Baptist in doctrine; we take what we believe directly from the Bible, and we try to teach and preach only what the Bible declares.

There are several ways to learn more about our church. We have a Facebook page and a web-site: http://idahobaptist.com. You can also hear our services by clicking on “Join.me/idahobaptist” on your computer or smart phone, and most of our messages can be heard on “sermonaudio.com/idahobaptist”.

Prayer Requests:
Sis. Winene Nimmo – Arthritis & cancer
Bro. Steve Kjeldgaard – Leukemia & job

Schedule:
Men’s Prayer Meeting – November 2, 6:30 a.m.
Next Fellowship Sunday – October 20.

Vance Havner quotes ...

There is a cheap, easy believism that does not believe and an easy receivism that does not receive.

The last word of Christ to one of His churches was not the great commission; it was “repent.”

It is hard to win to the church those not won through the church.

Christianity began as a company of lay witnesses; it has become a professional pulpitism, financed by lay spectators.

At the rate America is decaying morally, we shall have to change our national symbol from an eagle to a vulture.

When the Lord’s white sheep become dirty gray, all black sheep feel more comfortable.

A man can come and listen ... to the preaching of the gospel but he can listen only as a sermon-taster. He can be interested in the man, in the preaching, in the words, in many another thing; he can be interested in the argument, or in the particular thoughts, but he is listening in a detached manner, as a spectator, or as a judge, as he might go to a theatre and watch a play with the same detachment. It has got nothing to do with him. It is a matter of interest to him because he may have that particular kind of taste, but it is nothing more. But when the Spirit comes a man begins to listen in a personal manner, he begins to get a personal concern. This is what the Spirit does. It makes these things living and real and practical and relevant to us.

– D. M. Lloyd-Jones

The next time you are faced ... with temptation, imagine how much power that temptation would have on a dead person. That’s how much it will influence us when we actively consider ourselves to be dead to sin.

– J. D. Pentecost

Sir James Simpson ...

the discoverer of chloroform, used to say that the greatest discover he ever made was the discovery that he was a sinner and that Jesus Christ was just the Saviour he needed.

– W. F. Boreham

A good sermon ought to be frequently repeated.

– T. Boston
The “Daily Wire” reports...

“Twenty-year-old conservative activist and prominent Trump supporter Kathy Zhu was reportedly stripped of her Miss Michigan crown from the Miss World America Organization over past ‘insensitive’ social media posts and her refusal to try on a hijab at a college event in 2018. Zhu is a Chinese immigrant who moved to the United States at age five; she became popular in conservative circles for her support for Donald Trump during the 2016 election and for fighting off students attempting to get her expelled from the University of Central Florida for refusing to try on a hijab ... Zhu was named as an Indiana and Michigan 2019 national finalist earlier this week in a bid to move on to the Miss Teen World America preliminary and finals set for October. ... However, the student was soon informed by the organization via email that she would have to turn in her sash and crown and disassociate with the group over past offensive, insensitive, and inappropriate’ social media posts. ‘Miss World America’s State/National/Chief Director accused me of being racist, Islamophobic, and insensitive,’ Zhu wrote in a post via Twitter, captioning screenshots of an email exchange between her and Miss World America. ‘They stripped me of my Miss Michigan title due to my refusal to try on a hijab in 2018, my tweet about black on black gun violence, and ‘insensitive’ statistical tweets.’ ... Responding to Laurie DeJack, [Miss World America Michigan State Director] Zhu wrote via text, ‘How is that racist? It’s statistics. Didn’t know statistics were racist’”

There is no forgiveness...

in this world, or in that which is to come, except through the cross of Christ. “Through this man is preached unto the forgiveness of sins.” The religion of paganism scarcely knew the word... the great faiths of the Buddhist and the Mohammedan give no place either to the need or the grace of reconciliation.

The clearest proof of this is the simplest. It lies in the hymns of Christian worship. A Buddhist temple never resounds with a cry of praise. Mohammedan worshipers never sing. Their prayers are, at the highest, prayers of submission and of request. They seldom reach the gladler note of thanksgiving. They are never jubilant with the song of the forgiven. By contrast, whenever Christian people come together it is impossible to stop them singing. The Christian community is a community of celebration.

The concept of substitution ...

may be said to lie at the heart of both sin and salvation. For the essence of sin is man substituting himself for God, while the essence of salvation is God substituting Himself for the sinner. Man asserts himself against God and puts himself where only God deserves to be; God sacrifices Himself for man and puts Himself where only man deserves to be. Man claims prerogatives which belong to God alone; God accepts penalties which belong to man alone.

God doth justify...

the believing man, yet not for the worthiness of his belief, but for his worthiness who is believed.

It is the crucified man ...

that can preach the cross. Said Thomas “except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails... I will not believe.” Dr. Parker of London said that what Thomas said of Christ, the world is saying about the Christian. And the world is also saying of every preacher: Unless I see in your hands the print of the nails, I will not believe. It is true. It is the man... who had died with Christ... that can preach the cross of Christ.

God’s love is holy ...

His love is not regulated by passion or sentiment, but by principle. It never conflicts with His holiness, and will never wink at sin. The highest manifestation of God’s love is the Cross.

“My recommendation is: when the church switches its brand of coffee, it’s time to start looking for another place to worship.”
